SIMBA is an intersectional social and economic transformation coalition. We organize regional businesses and consumers to build equitable community wealth, broaden ownership in the means of production, and enrich our unique community character. We are a non-profit organization, affiliated with the American Independent Business Alliance working to build a thriving local economy and a unique community. We do this by nurturing connections for and acting as the voice of locally-owned, independent businesses and by raising awareness of the importance of buying local.

Position Description – Field Organizer: The primary responsibilities of this job include recruiting new members of SIMBA by going to their business, educating them about the benefits of SIMBA membership, and signing them up to join in the movement!

Qualifications:

- A passion for local and underrepresented businesses to thrive.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team, committed to helping others.
- Goal-oriented, self-motivated, resourceful, possessing creativity and problem solving skills.
- Excellent verbal communication and active listening skills.
- Ability to take and apply feedback.
- Good time management and the ability to work under pressure.

Location: In Person at the SIMBA office: 631 S Richard Allen Ct. Room 205 99202
